

Procedure for Admission to M.Sc. Finance Batch 2024-26

The method:

The desirous candidates will apply on the portal of the Institute for admission to M.Sc. in Finance (MFin) Programme.

The candidates should have appeared for MH-CET 2024 or CAT 2023 to be eligible for the process. The application form will be opened for a stipulated period for applying to the admission process of M.Sc. Finance.

Only complete and consistent applications will be considered for evaluation of their profiles. Applications with incorrect CAT/MH-CET and other details will be rejected.

The candidates who have appeared for Union Public Service Commission Civil Services Examination in 2022 or 2023 having appeared for the Interviews/ personality test (Clearing Preliminary and Main Examination and due for Interview) will also be eligible for admission procedure. They are exempted from the MH-CET/CAT. The written test marks for these candidates will be computed based on their performance in UPSC examination. Their equivalent written test scores (in place of CAT / MH CET scores) will be computed based on their Preliminary and Main examination scores.

Initial filter applied for profile evaluation:

The applicants will be shortlisted based on their CAT/MH-CET scores. The cut off is as follows:

Category	CAT 2023 percentile	MH-CET 2024 Percentile
General	95	97
Reserved	75	90
PH	75	85

Please note, to be considered for profile evaluation; applicants need to meet the above cut off and the past academic record (PAR) cutoff.

The PAR cutoff is as follows:

Category	Percentage of Marks in 10 th Standard SSC or equivalent	Percentage of Marks in 12 th Standard HSSC or Equivalent
General	60% or above	60% or above
Reserved	55% or above	55% or above

The candidates should have opted for Mathematics at the higher secondary level or at UG degree course level.

The candidates who satisfy the above the afore mentioned criteria will be considered for computation of Application Rating Score (ARS).

Approximately 400 candidates will be called or evaluated for In-Person Assessment (IPA) based on their Application Rating Score.

In-Person Assessment will comprise of Group Activity (GA), Personal Interview (PI) and Writing Aptitude Test (WAT).

The Total Score is made up of Application Rating Score (AR) and In-Person Assessment (IPA) Score. The Application Rating Score has 60% and In-person assessment has 40% weightage respectively.

Application Rating Scores comprise of CAT/MH-CET performance, Past Academic Records up to Graduation, Work Experience and Extra Curricular Activity, and Academic and Gender Diversity.

The weightage criteria are as follows:

Criterion	Application Rating Score (ARS)					In-person Assessment (IPA)				Total Score(TS)
	CAT/MH -CET /UPSC score	PAR (Xth, XIIth, Bachelor's degree)	Extra- curricular/ Work Experience	Diversity	Total	GA	PI	WAT	Total
Weightage	60	15	20	5	100	20	60	20	100

The minimum Total Score (TS) required to be considered for admission to M.Sc. Finance is 50 for General Category and 45 for Reserved category.
